

Cellist Hannah Moses enjoys a vibrant career as both performer and educator. A Cleveland native, Hannah holds degrees from the Cleveland Institute of Music and Rice University's Shepherd School of Music, where her teachers included Richard Weiss, Melissa Kraut, and Norman Fischer. Passionate about education, Hannah is currently Cello Professor at Kent State University and the University of Akron, and is associated faculty at the Chamber Music Connection in Worthington, Ohio. Hannah is a founding member of the Callisto Quartet, which has won top prizes at the Fischhoff, Banff, Melbourne, and Bordeaux Chamber Music Competitions, and currently enjoys a busy concert schedule in venues across the globe. Hannah plays on a 1780 John Betts cello on generous loan from the Ravinia Steans Institute.
